I'm an experienced, creative editor and have been editing for broadcast for 27 years. I'm versatile, fast and efficient and happy working on Avid, FCP or Premiere.

I have edited over 130 hours of Natural History programmes. Examples of my work include Animals with Cameras episode one (NHU, for BBC1), Super Giant Animals with Steve Backshall (NHU, for BBC1 primetime), Tiny World (Plimsoll for Apple), Hostile Planet (Plimsoll Productions, for Nat Geo), DIY SOS Children in Need 2013 Special & DIY SOS Homes for Veterans 2015 Special (BBC Factual for BBC1), The Red Nosed African Convoy, (Comic Relief for BBC1), Bear Grylls' Born Survivor (Diverse for CH4) and the first ever episode of Jeremy Wade's River Monsters (Icon Films for Animal Planet).

I've worked on a huge variety of television genres. I've cut shows for the BBC, Nat Geo, ITV, CH4, Five, PBS, Animal Planet and Discovery, and worked for Plimsoll Productions, BBC Studios, Icon Films, Tigress, Diverse, Image Impact, Hello-Halo, Atlantic Productions and more.

I've edited indoors and outdoors... on a yacht in the Antarctic, at the edge of the Arabian desert, on a beach in Spain, a farm in Devon, and in many, many edit suites in Bristol!
